

Belmont Community School is a Pre-K through Grade 12 facility with approximately 380 students and 35 teaching staff. The School meets or exceeds expectations on the state report card each year.

Phone: (608) 762-5131

Schools Website

- At Belmont Community Schools nearly all of the graduates continue their education. The dropout rate is near 0, and about half of the teaching staff has a master's degree. The students at Belmont consistently test among the top in the state of Wisconsin.
- Ninety percent of Belmont students participate in extracurricular activities
- Belmont provides a complete program of special education services
- Belmont Elementary School offers small class sizes of around 15 students to meet individual student needs. It offers a traditional curriculum along with many enrichment programs. Each classroom has its own computers along with a large computer lab in the building
- Belmont Middle School is departmentalized. Our school offers our 7th and 8th graders many opportunities in sports and extra-curricular activities.
- Belmont High School offers a competitive college preparatory program. Vocational studies include technology, business, and industrial arts. State-of-the-art computer equipment is also available.

View PDF